Libreria Musicale Italiana

Founded by the International Repertory for Musical Iconography (RIdIM) and published under the auspices of RIdIM and The International Council for Traditional Music (ICTM).

Manuscripts from the U.S. and Canada should be sent to Prof. Tilden Russell, 136 Central Avenue, Apt. D 1, HAMDEN, CT 06517. Manuscripts from other countries to Univ.-Prof. Dr. Tilman Seebass, Musikwiss. Institut der Universität, Karl-Schönherr Str. 3, 6020-INNSBRUCK, Austria.

The illustration on the half-title page is taken from the woodcut Fraw Musica by Lukas Cranach the Younger for the publisher Georg Rhau in Wittenberg, ca. 1544–1556. The vignette also comes from Rhau's shop.

Titelvignette nach dem Holzschnitt Fraw Musica von Lukas Cranach d. J. für Verlagswerke des Georg Rhau in Wittenberg, ca. 1544–1556. Auch die Schlußvignette entstammt Rhaus Offizin.

La vignette du titre d'après la gravure sur bois Fraw musica de Lukas Cranach le Jeune pour les publications de Georg Rhau à Wittenberg, environ 1544–1556. La vignette à la fin provient de même de l'imprimerie de Rhau.

La vignetta che compare sulla pagina con l'occhiello è tratta dalla xilografia Fraw Musica di Lukas Cranach il Giovane per l'editore Georg Rhau di Wittenberg, ca. 1544–1556. Essa proviene dalla bottega dell'editore stesso.

Directions to Contributors

The purpose of Imago Musicae is the publication of original articles on the representation of music in the visual arts and the relation between music and art. The official languages are English, German, and French; Italian and Spanish are possible too.

Manuscripts. All material should be typed double-spaced with wide margins. Footnotes, bibliography, list of illustrations, musical examples, etc. should be typed (double-spaced) on separate sheets. To preserve anonymity during the refereeing process the author's name and full address should appear only on the cover sheet together with the title. The layout allows for main text with footnotes, and excursuses (in petit) without footnotes. Quotations in non-modern languages should be given in their original form in the main text with translation in a footnote. Modern language quotations are given in the main text without translation.

Bibliographic references should conform to the Chicago Manual of Style (chapter 16). References to publications, including the first reference, should take the short form showing the author's family name, the date of publication, and the page number(s), e.g. Bowles 1977: 149, or Winkler 1913: 277–278. At the end of the article, on separate sheets a bibliography should be given with the full form of these references, e.g.

Bowles, Edmund A.

1977 Musikleben im 15. Jahrhundert. Leipzig: Deutscher Verlag für Musik (Musikgeschichte in Bildern vol. 1, fasc. 8).

Winkler, Friedrich

1913 "Gerard David und die Brügger Miniaturmalerei seiner Zeit." Monatshefte für Kunstwissenschaft 6: 271–280.

Illustrations. The photographs must be of the highest quality and must either be taken directly from the original or, if that should not be possible, be of corresponding quality. They should be printed on high gloss paper, and be no smaller than 13 x 18 cm. Except for photos from woodcuts and engravings (where high contrast is preferable) the prints should be made from continuous-tone negatives. Drawings should be in black ink on white drawing paper. It is the author's responsibility to obtain permission to reproduce material. Each photograph must be numbered consecutively on the back and include the author's address (do not use ballpoint).

The captions (typed double-spaced on a separate "List of Illustrations") should be brief, e.g.

1. Tintoretto, Musizierende Frauen. Dresden, Gemäldegalerie (destroyed). – Photo: Alinari-Viollet
2. Drawing of the outside of shaman drum. – Photo: after Klements 1890: II, 2, pl. V.

Submission. The manuscript should initially be submitted in triplicate (in duplicate from overseas), together with good photocopies of the illustrations. The final version of accepted articles should, wherever possible, be submitted on floppy-disk (Macintosh Microsoft Word or MS-DOS Wordperfect) together with a print-out and with photographs.

Hinweise für Autoren

Imago Musicae dient der Veröffentlichung von musik- und kunstwissenschaftlichen Originalartikeln über die Darstellung der Musik in der bildenden Kunst und die Beziehungen zwischen Musik und bildender Kunst. Die offiziellen Sprachen sind Deutsch, Englisch und Französisch; Italienisch und Spanisch sind möglich.

Das ganze Manuskript soll mit doppeltem Zeilenabstand und breiten Rändern getippt sein. Fußnoten, Bibliographie, Liste der Abbildungen, Notenbeispiele etc. gehören auf getrennte Blätter (ebenfalls mit doppeltem Zeilenabstand getippt). Zur Gewährleistung der Anonymität während der Beurteilung durch Gutachter soll der Name und die Adresse des Autors nur auf einem Vorsatzblatt zusammen mit dem Titel erscheinen. Die Aufsätze können aufgegliedert werden in den Haupttext mit Fußnoten und in Exkurse (die in kleinerem Druck erscheinen) ohne Fußnoten. Schwerverständliche Zitate in nicht-modernen Sprachen werden im Text im originalen Wortlaut gebracht und in einer Fußnote übersetzt.

Die Zitierweise richtet sich nach dem Chicago Manual of Style (Kapitel 16). Nachweise erfolgen in Kurzform bestehend aus dem Geschlechtsnamen des Autors, dem Erscheinungsjahr und der Seitenzahl, z.B. Bowles 1977: 149, oder Winkler 1913: 277–278. Am Ende des Aufsatzes folgt auf Separatblättern die Bibliographie mit den vollständigen Literaturangaben, z.B.

Bowles, Edmund A.

1977 Musikleben im 15. Jahrhundert. Leipzig: Deutscher Verlag für Musik (Musikgeschichte in Bildern Bd. 3, Lfg. 8).

Winkler, Friedrich

1913 "Gerard David und die Brügger Miniaturmalerei seiner Zeit." Monatshefte für Kunstwissenschaft 6: 271–280.

Abbildungen. Wir bitten Sie dringend, nur erstklassige direkt vom Original aufgenommene Photos zu schicken, auf Hochglanzpapier abgezogen und im Format 13 x 18 oder größer. Außer bei Aufnahmen von Holzschnitten und Kupferstichen, wo sich Photos mit hartem Kontrast besser eignen, sind Abzüge von Halbtonnegativen zu verwenden. Zeichnungen müssen in schwarzer Tusche auf Zeichenpapier ausgeführt sein. Das Einholen der Abdrucksrechte ist Sache des Autors. Die Photos sollen auf der Rückseite durchgehend nummeriert sein und den Namen und die Adresse des Autors enthalten (ja nicht Kugelschreiber verwenden!). Die Bildlegenden sollen möglichst knapp sein und auf einem getrennten Blatt mit doppeltem Zeilenabstand stehen, z. B.

1. Tintoretto, Musizierende Frauen. Dresden, Gemäldegalerie (zerstört). – Photo: Alinari-Viollet
2. Zeichnung auf der Außenseite einer Schamanentrommel. – Photo nach Klements 1890: II, 2, Tf. V.

Procedere. Das Manuskript soll vorerst in dreifacher Ausführung (bei Autoren aus Übersee in zweifacher Ausführung) zusammen mit guten Photokopien der Abbildungen eingesandt werden. Die endgültige Fassung sollte wenn möglich auf Diskette (Macintosh Microsoft Words oder MS-DOS Wordperfect) eingesandt werden zusammen mit einem Ausdruck und den Originalphotos.
